Project Manager The small print

Are you looking for an exciting and diverse role in Project Management?

This digitally focused role is an exciting opportunity to join our team as a Project Manager.

Here is the low down on the role; don't worry if you don't have all of the attributes as the role will shape around the right person. We value drive and talent as much as we do specific skillsets and experience.

The role has a number of core focuses:

Core focus one – Project Management

- Maintaining and driving project plans to excellent standards
- Accuracy and timeliness of data recorded within a Client Relationship Management System, i.e., Filemaker Pro
- Ability to follow processes and the critical path for digital solutions
- Managing and overseeing the administration and logistics of solutions as part of the Client Service Team
- Co-ordinating the end-to-end implementation of solutions throughout the project lifecycle
- Managing a complex portfolio of clients, both domestic and global virtual, face-to-face and blended
- Proven abilities in MS office (MS word, excel PowerPoint, Teams and Outlook in particular)
- Time management skills and the ability to prioritise work
- Meticulous attention to detail and problem-solving skills
- Organisational skills with the ability to multi-task is a must
- Ability to work under pressure and hit multiple deadlines
- Proactive and self-motivated

Core focus two – Digital expertise

- Showing interest and forward-thinking in all things digital
- Developing an expert understanding of how to manage and administer solutions and programmes delivered on digital platforms, including our in-house digital learning application
- Learning new digital platforms such as Teams, Zooms, Spatial Chat, and Mural
- An understanding of digital terminology

Core focus three – People skills

- Excellent written and verbal communication skills – you will be liaising with internal and external stakeholders
- Team player – relationships are at the heart of how we work globally
- Good initiative and ability to deal with ambiguity – asking the right questions, anticipating needs and being resourceful
- Confident, proactive and professional when it comes to approaching people
- Flexible and comfortable with ongoing change and development of the role as it continues to evolve in the digital space

The small print

Here's some stuff we're brilliant at:

- The money part – salary is negotiable and competitive (depending on experience). Profit share, bonus scheme and pension scheme are all in there too.
- We're a great place to work® – it's official!
- Wellbeing – health insurance is included in your package
- Inspiring and developing – we have a tailored induction process and lots of opportunities (internally as part of the impact academy or externally) to learn, grow and progress in your career
- Celebrating successes – no matter how great or small
- Caring for each other – we always have each other's backs
- Finding opportunities to support our local communities around the world
- Adventure and fun – where else would you celebrate the biggest mistake of the year with a trophy and an awards ceremony?!
